The Weather

FORECAST—Tonight and Tuesday, generally cloudy, probably local thunder showers.
THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT—The Italian government, which several years ago bought most of the telephone systems of the country, has extended until 1923 the time which some smaller companies may operate independently. To prevent a person learning to swim from sinking, even should he wish to do so, an Alabama man has invented a floating framework to which he is fastened by half a dozen elastic bands. A novel dial has been patented which may be attached to any clock, transforming it, when the minute hand has been removed, into a one-hand time piece which the inventor claims is more easily read. Platinum thrown away by early Spanish explorers, ignorant of its value, often is found in excavating foundations for new buildings in Colombia, sometimes in sufficient quantities to pay the cost of a building.

MAY RAINFALL SETS NEW RECORD FOR THE CITY

Half-Inch Downpour on Final Day of Month Brings Total Up to 1.02 Inches, Says County Engineer.

"The heavy rain of yesterday and last night gives us what I believe is a new rainfall record for Albuquerque for the month of May," said County Engineer Pitt Ross this morning. Mr. Ross has a very accurate set of weather recording instruments and keeps close tab on the weather and the rainfall. He has, in fact, the only accurate records now kept in this locality.

Half an inch of rain fell yesterday and last night up to midnight, Mr. Ross reports, bringing the total for the month to 1.02 inches.

Last night's rain was quite general throughout this section of the state.

MITCHELL SWEARS HE DIDN'T HAVE A REVOLVER

But Witnesses Depose They Saw One in His Hand, so He is Held for Grand Jury.

Somebody was mistaken in Justice George R. Craig's court this morning when Joe Mitchell was arraigned for threatening Sweetie Thompson and Mrs. Julia Martin with a revolver. Several witnesses swore that they saw a revolver in his hand during an altercation with Sweetie at Mrs. Martin's home last week, and Mitchell swore that he not only didn't have a gun, but didn't have a gun with him. Also, he didn't know, he averred why Sweetie should have started to pick on him, because he didn't have any grievance against her.

Justice Craig, after a swift review of the testimony, said it looked very much as if there had been a gunplay, and he held Mitchell in $150 bail for the grand jury. Mitchell was given until tomorrow to find a bondsman.

There will be a regular meeting of Mineral Lodge, No. 4, Knights of Pythias, tonight at 8 o'clock. Work in the rank of equile and election of officers. A full attendance is especially desired.
